Women in modern renewable energy

Survey 2016

Early research indicates that renewable energy has more gender parity than the broader energy sector

Women representation:
- 46% in administrative
- 32% in management
- 28% in technical workforce

In comparison: 25% of senior-level management positions were held by women in Fortune 500 companies in 2015

The share of women in the U.S. solar workforce increased from for 19% in 2013 to 28% in 2016
In Germany and Spain they account for 24% and 26% of the renewable energy workforce

Challenges women face to enter

Perception of gender roles
Women face discrimination

Gender imbalance at STEM education
STEM is not presented socially as an option. Lack of women studying engineering and science, reduces the number of women eligible for technical roles
Non-stem jobs also present imbalances

Gender imbalance at workplace
Energy sector, even in renewables, women are underrepresented at every level

GWNET Mid-term Work Plan 2018 - 2020

Developing a data baseline on women participation in the energy transition (in collaboration with IRENA and REN21)

Mainstreaming of gender in regional and/or national energy policies (in collaboration with CESC/NREL and Global Network of Regional Sustainable Energy Centres (GN-SEC))

Women’s Economic Empowerment and entrepreneurship (in cooperation with ENERGIA, wPOWER Hub and GN-SEC)

Collection of best-practice stories about gender/women empowering in on-going projects (in collaboration with UNIDO, ENERGIA, Global Alliance for Clean Cookstoves, SEforALL People Centered Accelerator)

Mentoring programmes: continuation of global programmes, facilitation of regional/sectoral programmes

GWNET networking events back-to-back with major energy events (IRENA General Assembly, Berlin Energy Transition Dialogue, SEforALL Forum, Vienna Energy Forum, etc.)

Development of a database of women speakers (in collaboration with C3E and all other partners)
GWNET regional/national partners

Collaboration with the following national/regional GWNET partners ongoing:
- India with CEEW’s Women in sustainability initiative
- Mexico with GIZ’s REDMEREE
- Russia
- Central America
- Nordic Energy Equality Network

Benefits:
- Connectivity with other Regional Partners and the membership of GWNET at large
- Receive the quarterly GWNET Newsletter and showcase their activities in the GWNET newsletter, thereby creating global outreach
- Participate in GWNET events at a reduced rate
- Benefit from occasional Webinars or other capacity building that becomes available for all GWNET members
- Showcasing of their members in a global women expert database (to be developed by GWNET)

Expectations from national/regional partners:
• GWNET national/regional partners are expected to adhere to GWNET’s objectives and to actively participate in GWNET activities.
• GWNET national/regional partners provide region-specific know-how and access to local contacts/sponsors

Who qualifies:
Organisations/groupings with an anchorage in the energy sector and with national/regional reach that promote and support the rapid transition to sustainable energy through empowering women.

How to apply:
Send a letter addressed to the GWNET Secretariat, detailing the organisation’s anticipated contribution to GWNET’s mandate as well as how your organisation will support GWNET’s goals and objectives. The GWNET Governing Board will review and decide upon all applications during the quarterly meeting following the submission of the application.
